

Baltimore, home of AIBTM and America Meetings Week, is easy to get to and easy to get around. Nearly everything is "just two feet away" from the spacious Baltimore Convention Center and the famed Inner Harbor. Great restaurants, world-class attractions and museums, outstanding sports venues and 8,500 hotel rooms (5,500 committable) are part of the city's compact, convenient "convention community". Neighborhoods - from the cultural hub of Mount Vernon to historic Federal Hill and Fell's Point to kitschy Hampden - are great places for your attendees to discover Baltimore. Learn more about Baltimore by visiting www.Baltimore.org.

Easy access

Situated in the heart of the Mid-Atlantic States, a densely populated region with a population of more than 50 million people, Baltimore is easily accessible by plane, train or highway. Three major airports serve the city: Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport in Maryland, Washington Dulles International Airport and Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport. Baltimore's Penn Station is one of Amtrak's busiest stations. Baltimore is also easily accessible by major highways; I-95, I-83 and I-70.

Easy to get around

Although almost everything visitors usually want to see and do is within easy walking distance of the Baltimore Convention Center, it is also easy to explore further afield. The many unique neighborhoods, museums and attractions can be accessed via the fast, free and green Charm City Circulator. This free hybrid bus service features three routes connecting to popular attractions including the Convention Center, Baltimore's Inner Harbor, Historic Fell's Point, Harbor East, Federal Hill, Mount Vernon and Amtrak's Penn Station and the Station North Arts and Entertainment District. The Baltimore Water Taxis provide services around the Inner Harbor.

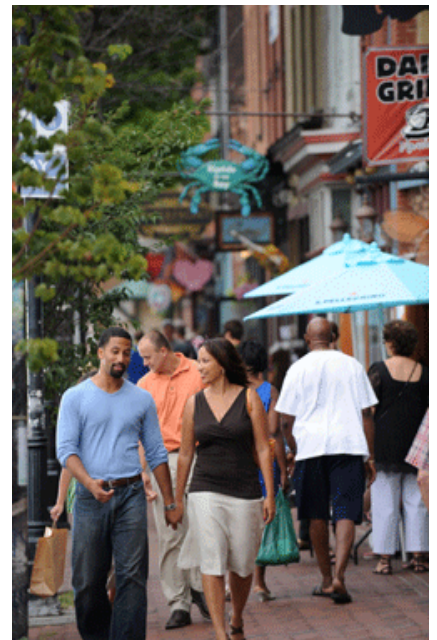

Excellent hotel packages

There are more than 8,500 hotel rooms (5,500 available for block bookings) within walking distance of the Baltimore Convention Center, and thousands more just a short ride away. We feature all of the familiar major brands as well as a number of first-class independent and limited service properties. The variety of hotels makes Baltimore a great place for in-house meetings, too.

Baltimore Convention Center

The Baltimore Convention Center is the centerpiece of the "convention community". It is located in the heart of downtown Baltimore, just steps from Inner Harbor:

- 300,000 sqft /27,870 sqm of exhibition space
- 50 meeting rooms, accommodating from 85 to 1,600 people
- 36,672 sqft/3,345 sqm ballroom
- World-class catering partner Centerplate

Major industries

More than 8 million people live in the Baltimore/Washington DC, Metroplex, providing meeting professionals with a large population base from which to draw attendees. Major industry sectors in the region include: healthcare, biotechnology, higher education, technology and defense, financial services, government and sports.

Contact

Visit Baltimore

Amy Calvert
Vice President of Sales and Services
100 Light Street, 12th Floor
Baltimore, MD 21202, USA
phone +1 410 659 7331
fax +1 410 727 2308
acalvert@baltimore.org -
www.baltimore.org

